pursuant to Rule 65 of the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure should not be granted against the Defendants, as requested by the Commission.

IV.

EMERGENCY RELIEF

The Court finds that the Commission has made a sufficient and proper showing in support of the relief granted herein by presenting a prima facie case of securities laws violations by the Defendants, and by showing a reasonable likelihood the Defendants will harm the investing public by continuing to violate the federal securities laws if they are not enjoined. The Court also finds good cause to believe that unless immediately restrained and enjoined by Order of this Court, the Defendants will continue to dissipate, conceal or transfer assets which are subject to Orders of this Court. Accordingly, the Motion is GRANTED, and

IT IS HEREBY ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED that the Defendants, their directors, officers, agents, escrow agents, trustees, servants, employees, attorneys, accountants, and those persons in active concert or participation with them, and each of them, as well as any entities which the Defendants use, act through, operate, manage, control, or consult for, or have a professional, employment or other business relationship with, are hereby restrained and enjoined, until such time as directed by this Court, from further violations of this Court's Order of Judgment (DE #225) filed on June 6, 2007, restraining and enjoining Defendants from violating Section 10(b) of the Securities and Exchange Act of 1934, 15 U.S.C. § 78j(b), and Rule 10b-5 promulgated thereunder, 17 C.F.R. § 240.10b-5, and restraining and enjoining Defendants from violating Section 17(a)
